

The 75th Annual AIA Minnesota Convention will be held November 10-13 at the Minneapolis Convention Center.

Program Tracks for Convention

Create your convention program referencing this guide organized by category and register today at www.aia-mn.org/ext_convention

Design

- Event 8 - Digital Photography Fused to Ceramics and Glass
- Event 10, Keynote Address - Transdisciplinary Design: Context, Culture and the Public Realm
- Event 26, Keynote Address - Opportunistic Architecture: Exploring the Overlaps Between Form, Program and Materiality
- Event 38, Keynote Address - Jurors' Show and Tell
- Event 39 - Honor Awards Announced
- Event 44 - Digital Illustration Techniques for Design and Presentation
- Event 48 - Communicating the Idea: The Importance of Hand Drawing in Architecture Today
- Event 51 - Editor's Choice: 3 Inspirational Architecture Minnesota Profiles

Materials and Systems

- Event 3 - Commercial Building Science - Concepts and Practices
- Event 29 - Fabric Formwork for Concrete Structures and Architecture
- Event 41 - Architecturally Exposed Structural Steel: Realizing Expectation
- Event 45 - Noteworthy Masonry Details - how did they do that
- Event 49 - Designing Green Buildings with Structural Insulated Panels

Practice

- Event 1 - Construction Contract Administration in the Real World
- Event 4 - The Impact of Personality Types in A/E/C Teams
- Event 13 - Presenting to Cities: Improving Project Success
- Event 18 - Surveys, Entitlement and Property - A Primer for Architects
- Event 27 - Interdisciplinary Now, Forward
- Event 32 - How to Write Effective Proposals
- Event 35 - A Look at the Practice Model of VJAA

Leadership and Ethics

- Event 16 - Lessons from History: Ethical Leadership
- Event 21 - Safeguarding the Profession and Its Image: Requirements of an Ethical Practice
- Event 30 - Young Architects as Role Models
- Event 47 - The Value of Mentoring
- Event 52 - Keynote Address, Leadership Presence (see sidebar at left)

Profession

- Event 9, Member Congress Keynote Address - The Great Recession and the Economic Outlook for Minnesota
- Event 43 - ARE Review: Programming, Planning & Practice

Residential

- Event 6 - How to Have a Rewarding Career Practicing Residential Architecture
- Event 36 - Designing Durable Net-Zero Energy Homes

Urban Design

- Event 28 - UM Morris - Renewing the Past, Sustaining the Future
- Event 33 - Art and the Urban Landscape

Preservation

- Event 12 - Old is the New Green: New Directions in Historic Preservation
- Event 17 - Old is the New Green: Localize / Revitalize
- Event 22 - Old is the New Green: Calculate to Renovate
- Event 24 - Keynote Address, Sustainability Begins with Preservation

Sustainable Design

- Event 2 - Beyond Green - Designing As If We Wanted to Live Here
- Event 5 - Sustainable Building 2030 Applied
- Event 7 - The Changing Face of Photovoltaics in Commercial Building Projects
- Event 15 - The Passive House Standard: What it is and Why it Matters
- Event 20 - Target Center Vegetated Roof Project
- Event 31 - Sustainable Policy at the Legislature
- Event 46 - Architecture and the Economics of Climate Change
- Event 50 - Planning for Total Cost: Life Cycle Analysis of a Century Old Medical Campus

Technology

- Event 14 - The Five Stages of Building Information Management
- Event 19 - Case Studies for Integrated Project Delivery
- Event 40 - Operational Efficiency: Electronic Document Management Systems

LEADERSHIP FORUM

Leadership Forum

DEBUTS AT THE CONVENTION, EVENT 52

The Leadership FORUM is a new program, created to assist AIA members in understanding and strengthening their role in leadership in areas of community involvement, government, professional practice, business development and mentorship. The FORUM Launch Mixer was held on September 9 and introduced the program to over 50 people. Excitement is building! Find out more about the program, see www.aia-mn.org/int_membership/programs.cfm.

