

TAKE ACTION presenting to your firm

'Establishing The Business Case For Women In Architecture'

Are you interested in starting a conversation about diversity in your firm?

Did you miss this presentation at the convention, but still want to learn about the business case women bring to our profession?

Please join us for an in-depth review of the presentation and the research involved. We will address common questions that have been asked and help prepare you to give this presentation in your own firm.

When: Monday, February 23rd, 11:45am- 1:15pm

Where: AIA MN Office- IMS

Hosted by: AIA-MN Women in Architecture Committee

RSVP: Not required, but nice: Amber Allardyce: allardyce@aia-mn.org

This is a 'brown-bag' seminar, please plan to bring your own lunch.

AIA Minnesota

A Society of The American Institute of Architects

trends

root causes

business case

concrete measures

