MINNEAPOLIS, MN – Eleven 2015 AIA Minnesota Honor Awards were announced at the 81st AIA Minnesota Annual Convention and Exhibition, on Thursday November 12. The Honor Awards jury, consisting of principals from three internationally recognized architectural firms, reviewed 78 submissions – all from Minnesota architectural firms. Submissions were reviewed within five categories: Architecture, Interiors, Restoration & Renovation, Urban Design and Master Planning, and Small Project.

AIA Minnesota Honor Awards are a tribute to architectural excellence. The award encourages a high level of architectural design, recognizes the clients and architects who have distinguished themselves, and informs the public of these important architectural contributions.

The Honor Awards Jurors included: Paul Mankins, FAIA, Principal at substance architecture, Des Moines; Marianne McKenna, AIA, Founding Partner, KPMB Architects, Toronto, Ontario; Edward A. Vance, FAIA, Founder & CEO, EV&A Architects, Las Vegas. These jurors remarked that they found they had re-occurring themes while selecting the award winners. They felt a heightened sensitive for submissions for projects with a reduced palette of materials and for submissions that reflected an overall sense of simplicity.

AIA Minnesota Honor Awards will be presented to recipients on Friday, December 4, at the 2015 Awards Dinner at the Minnesota History Center, at 345 Kellogg Blvd W. in St. Paul. The dinner will also showcase AIA Minnesota's 2015 Firm Award recipient architectural firm BWBR of St. Paul.

Other AIA Minnesota awards to be presented that evening: Young Architects Awards, Special Awards, 25 Year Award, Affordable Housing Design Award, and the Louis Lundgren Award.

Goblirsch, AIA, LEED AP; Project Lead
Designer: Steven Dwyer, AIA, LEED AP;
Project Manager: Erica Christenson, ASLA; and Project Architect: Rob Good, AIA, NCARB,
LEED AP

The jury felt the project's design "touched the forest lightly" and brings a respect to the environment in which the cabins reside. They felt it was important that this inspirational site is available to the public at a modest fee.

Project Name: Xcel Energy
Hiawatha West and Midtown
Substation Enclosures

Firm of Record: Alliance

Project Location:
Minneapolis

Client's Name: Xcel Energy

Project Team: Principal-in-charge & Project Manager: Ken Sheehan, AIA; Lead
Designer: Nina Ebbighausen, AIA; Project Team Members: Carrie Bly, AIA; and Amber
Sausen, Assoc. AIA (Sausen for Hiawatha West project only.)

The jury enjoyed that the designers did not try to mask what the project was, but chose to selectively reveal what was inside the site. They felt the materials used were spectacular.
